(February 8, 2019, Tucson, Arizona); Invisible Theatre presents a fabulous Fundraising Event honoring Camerone Parker McCulloch with the presentation of the “Edith Head Style Award” and 2019 Goldie Award. Reservations are being taken now for this stylish and delicious event on March 3, 2019 at 11:30 AM with brunch by Janos Wilder at The Carriage House. Joe Bourne and Christine Vivona will be part of the not-to-be-missed festivities!!

Renowned model, author, inspirational speaker and philanthropist, Camerone Parker McCulloch, is the recipient of the 2019 Goldie Klein Guest Artist Award. This award was established in 1988 as a way to pay tribute to Goldie Klein, mother of IT’s artistic director, Susan Claassen. Every year a guest artist at the Invisible Theatre is selected. The selection is based upon artistry, compassion and commitment to making the world a more loving and accepting place. Past recipients have included such illustrious artists as Ann Hampton Callaway, Steve Ross, Rain Pryor & Pryor Productions, Norma Jean Darden, Jeffrey Haskell, Amanda McBroom, Julie Budd, Sandy Hackett, Valarie Pettiford and Lynn Redgrave.

Don’t miss this event honoring the fabulous Camerone Parker McCulloch!
