(April 13, 2023, Tucson AZ); The Invisible Theatre's Pastime Players, an award-winning, multi-disciplinary arts education program for mentally and physically challenged students, started as a workshop in 1984 and has grown into a national prototype of innovative arts education programming that focuses on ability rather than disability. Funded in part by Foundation Cariñoso, RBC Foundation and Long Realty Cares Foundation, Project Pastime exemplifies the concept that when artists, teachers, administrators, funding agents, students and parents come together as a community – we really can make a difference! The Pastime Players will present THE ME INSIDE OF ME on Monday, May 1, 2023, at 6:00 p.m. at Doolen Middle School.

THE ME INSIDE OF ME

THE ME INSIDE OF ME is an original musical that is presented each spring marking the culmination of the students' year-long instruction in music, drama, and dance. Conceived and created by Invisible Theatre's Managing Artistic Director Susan Claassen and Gail Fitzhugh, Project Pastime is directed by Susan Claassen with associate director Betsy Kruse Craig, musical director Rob Boone and choreographer Kathryn Byrnes. The project is centered at Doolen Middle School in the Tucson Unified School District. The Pastime Players, receive instruction twice a week from local artists of the Invisible Theatre. While some components of THE ME INSIDE OF ME are repeated in each production, the framework is flexible and allows for individual ensemble members to have their special talents spotlighted. This year's production will feature The Pizza Song and excerpts from Where the Wild Things Are.

In addition to school performances, the touring group of Project Pastime has performed at the American Association of School Administrators Conference in Orlando, Florida in 2001. Throughout Arizona, they have appeared in such diverse venues as the state legislature, Raytheon Corporation, The City of Hope's National Spirit of Life dinner, the Senior Olympics opening ceremonies, the National Association for Handicapped Riders national conference, an art reception at the Flux Gallery in Plaza Palomino and at the 2013 Gem Show for the National Chinese Jewelry Association. Pastime Players were also honored at the 2002 Volunteers of the Year Awards when they received the Southwest Gas Corporation's "Right from the Start for Children" Award. The award-winning documentary, Such Good Friends, chronicling the Pastime Players, premiered at The Loft Cinema on April 26, 2009.

A promotional video of Project Pastime is available. Photo and interview opportunities can be arranged by contacting Betsy Kruse Craig at Invisible Theatre – (520) 884-0672.
